

Williams Scotsman Set to Join Russell 3000 Index and Russell 2000 Index

June 12, 2018

BALTIMORE, June 12, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- WillScot Corporation (NASDAQ:WSC) ("Williams Scotsman"), the specialty rental services market leader providing innovative modular space and portable storage solutions across North America, today announced that it has been included in a preliminary list of additions to the broad-market Russell 3000® Index and the small-cap Russell 2000® Index, according to a list published by FTSE on June 8. Inclusion in the Russell 2000® Index would take place at the conclusion of the Russell U.S. Indexes annual reconstitution, effective after the U.S. market opens on June 25.

The annual reconstitution of the Russell U.S. Indexes captures the 4,000 largest U.S. stocks as of May 11, ranking them by total market capitalization. Membership in the Russell 3000® Index, which remains in place for one year, means automatic inclusion in the large-cap Russell 1000® Index or small-cap Russell 2000® Index as well, as the appropriate growth and value style indexes. FTSE Russell determines membership for its Russell U.S. Indexes primarily by objective, market-capitalization rankings and style attributes.

Brad Sultz, President and Chief Executive Officer of Williams Scotsman, commented, "We are extremely pleased that Williams Scotsman is included in FTSE's list of new additions to the Russell 3000 and Russell 2000 Indexes. This outcome is an important acknowledgement of both the progress we have made executing on our mission and the strong support we have received from the investment community. We believe this will enhance the profile of our company and ultimately introduce more investors to Williams Scotsman, as approximately $9 trillion in assets under management (AUM) are benchmarked to, or invested in, products based on the Russell U.S. Indexes."

Russell U.S. Indexes are widely used by investment managers and institutional investors as the basis for index funds and as benchmarks for active investment strategies. Russell U.S. Indexes are part of FTSE Russell, a leading global index provider.
